

STATISTICAL ANALYSIS: ARRIVAL OF AFGHAN REFUGEES IN CANADA

Data Current to October 19, 2022—Based on Arrivals Since August 2021

Destination of Arrivals: GARs, PSRs, Extended Family, and Total Individuals

*Destination arrival city is not necessarily the final city of settlement

National Totals: GARs, PSRs, Extended Family and Total Individuals

Glossary

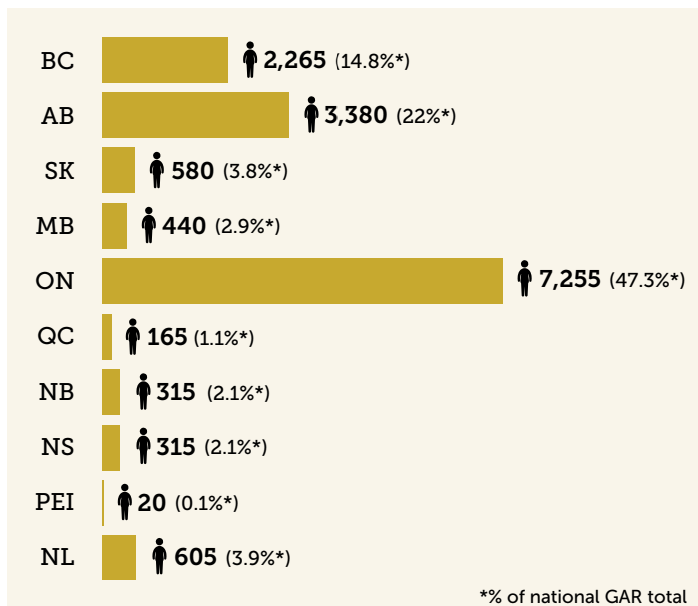

Government-assisted refugee (GAR)—A person who is outside Canada and has been determined to be a Convention refugee and who receives financial or other support from the Government of Canada or Province of Quebec for up to one year after their arrival in Canada. They are usually selected from applicants referred by the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) and other referral organizations.

Privately sponsored refugee (PSR)—A person outside Canada who has been determined to be a Convention refugee or member of the Country of Asylum class and who receives financial and other support from a private sponsor for one year after their arrival in Canada.

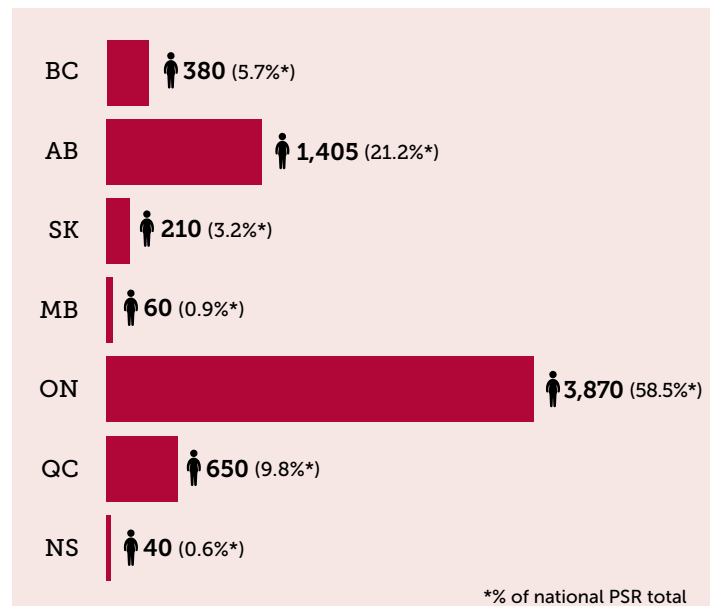

Extended Family Members of Former Interpreters—This permanent residence pathway resettles extended family members of former interpreters. For extended family members to be eligible, the interpreters must a) already live in Canada and b) have resettled in Canada under public policies from 2009 or 2012.

Source: <https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/refugees/afghanistan/key-figures.html#communities>

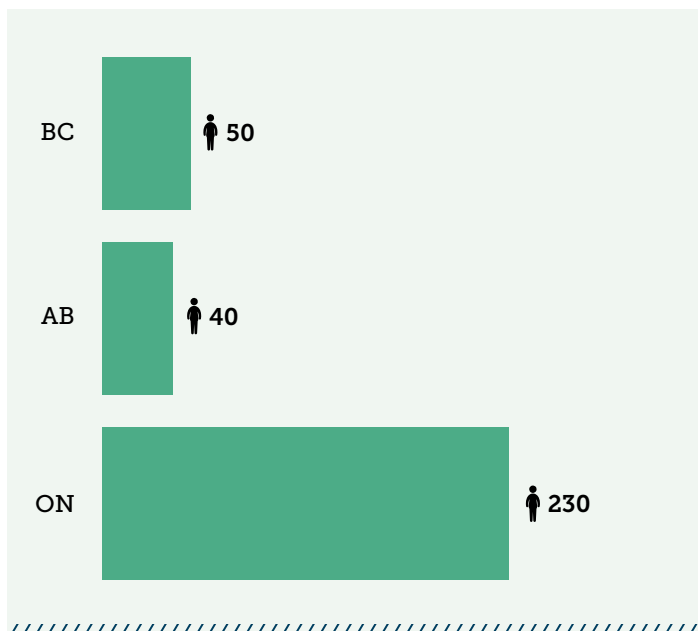

Provincial Totals: GARs

Provincial Totals: PSRs

Provincial Totals: Extended Family

Provincial Totals: Total Individuals

Key Takeaways

So far, British Columbia has welcomed approximately 12% of all Afghan refugees and their extended family members.

British Columbia has welcomed nearly 15% of all Afghans settled as Government-Assisted Refugees.

British Columbia has welcomed the THIRD largest number of Afghan refugees of any province and territory, behind Ontario and Alberta.

Source: <https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/refugees/afghanistan/key-figures.html#communities>