

GREATER VANCOUVER FOOD BANK REFERRAL

The Greater Vancouver Food Bank supports people struggling with food insecurity who live in Vancouver, Burnaby, New Westminister and on the North Shore. Food insecurity applies to individuals, couples and families who cannot afford the quality and quantity of food they need to avoid hunger. This can range from having to buy exclusively low-cost/low-nutrition foods or simply not being able to afford groceries at all because the bank account is empty. If you have a client in refugee claimant process, please fill the information below to support their registration at GVFB:

Client's Information:

Client's full name:

Client's phone number:

Client's email:

Client's postal code:

Client's family size:

Has the client applied for Refugee Claimant?

Has the client a UCI number?

Briefly describe the client current situation:

Referral Information:

Name of organization in which you represent:

Your name:

Work email:

Work phone: