

OPERATION UKRAINIAN SAFE HAVEN

OPÉRATION HAVRE DE PAIX POUR LES UKRAINIENS

TEMPORARY MEASURES AVAILABLE FOR CUAET HOLDERS IN CANADA

Although CUAET special measures expired on March 31, 2024, Ukrainians who meet the following criteria are eligible to apply for an open work permit or a study permit to extend their status in Canada:

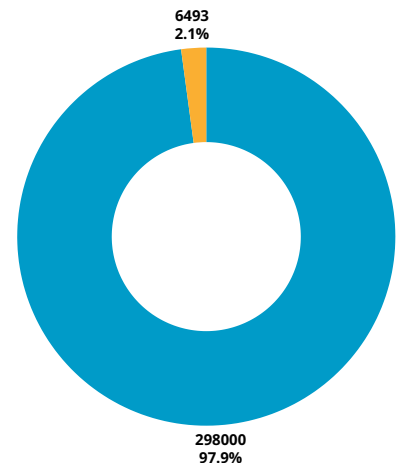

- Those who had their CUAET application approved before February 4, 2024 and;
- Those who arrived in Canada on or before March 31, 2024.

Applications must be submitted before March 31, 2025. Those wishing to apply for an extension of their study permit, or an extension of their stay as a visitor, must do so 30 days before their current status expires.

IN NUMBERS

While there are over 298,000 overseas CUAET Visa holders in Canada as of March 31, 2024, between April 1 and October 31, 2024, IRCC only received 6,493 in-Canada temporary resident extension applications.

NUMBER OF APPLICATIONS

LEARN MORE

Ukrainians and their families wishing to learn more about their options can find details at: <https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/immigrate-canada/ukraine-measures.html>.

Funded by:

Financé par :

Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada

Immigration, Réfugiés et Citoyenneté Canada